compiled by Ron Hoggarth November 2007
cousin of Henry born 1806

Ellen appears to have been a witness at the marriage of her sister Jane to James Beetham in 1832. She may be the Ellen in Milnthorpe Workhouse in 1841 with a two month old baby, Agnes. (She may possibly be the Ellen working as a House Servant to Elizabeth Jackson at No 8 Kent Street , Kendal in 1851.)

By 1861 Ellen is living with her daughter and son in Law and their young family at Wilsons Square in Holme. Like them she is working in the flax mill.

But once again Ellen is in Milnthorpe Workhouse in 1871 & 1881 and is described as a lunatic.
