

George Hoggarth born 1828
compiled by Ron Hoggarth January 2008
cousin of William born 1837

George the Mole Catcher

In 1851 George was living as an unmarried farm servant at Bensons Hall (Edward and Jane Martindale – Farmer of 173 acres) in Westmorland.

When Mary was born he was a Mole Catcher, an occupation which he seems to have had for the rest of his working life in Cheshire and Flint in Wales.

All of George & Hannah's other children were born in Cheshire. Their son George and his wife Martha were at 1 Eleanor Street, New Brighton, in 1911. 6 of 7 children were living.
